

CALENDER GIRLS JUNE 2009

Ros Thompson, Jo Cleaver and Alexis Edwards

Curves are giving the award to these girls for a number of different reasons. Firstly the girls have done extremely well and have lost a lot of pounds and inches between them.

However, the main reason is for their bravery and positive attitudes while their husbands were on duty in Afghanistan. All three ladies have had to look after their children while their husbands were away, and at the same time managed to exercise four times a week.....and they even took part in the Race For Life!

Well done girls....you are a delight to have at Curves!
